Aftermath of a Freeze Out

At the democratic rally last night something was said about the poor widows and orphans who suffered from the malicious designs of unscrupulous politicians. One speaker declared the one single purpose of the suit filed yesterday to secure a redemption of Golden Anchor stock was to smash Tonopah Merger regardless of consequences. The poor widow and orphan were pictured as the chief victims.

The speaker forgot to say anything about the original deal in Tonopah Merger by which the original holders of that security who gave their good money to develop the mine, were submerged in reckless speculation and whipsawed out of their stock until it was openly boasted that the control of the company had been transferred to Pittsburg.

Nothing was said of the coldblooded ingenuity by which hundreds of Tonopah buyers were induced to make commitments on small margins when the stock soared to $1.60 and then had the props knocked from under when the stock was hammered down to 87 1/2 cents.

Nothing was said of the ironclad contracts which these margin buyers were forced to sign and nothing was said of the office where these Shylock contracts were drawn up.

No search warrant is required to discover the men who furnished the sinews of war for the flotation of Merger when it was put on the market as the pride and hope of Tonopah working miners. These men put up their money freely for a legitimate object. They did not have to be pressed to buy. They bought cheerfully and paid for their purchases with a smile. They parted with their good round golden eagles, confident that they would be rewarded before long.

Where are they now?

Where are the holdings which were absorbed in three hours after the stock was placed on sale?

The men behind the guns may shed some light on the manipulation which ensued when bonanza ore was struck in the shaft of the Merger.

The managers of the democratic campaign are trying to make political capital out of the litigation begun this week. If they please to do so they should take off their coats and plunge into the whole nasty mess of stock speculation conducted under the auspices of their standard bearer. Don't make any half job of it.

Let us have the truth for the benefit of these "widows and orphans" whose misery excites the compassion of the hypocritical crew who three months ago gloated over the easy way the Merger stockholders fell for a Lawsonized stock game.

Time for Retrenchment

When you take up your ballot next Tuesday remember the necessity for electing a sound businesslike legislative ticket. Senator Newlands deplores the fact that much of the harm of a democratic administration was nullified through the presence of a republican executive but, it might also be said, that through the pernicious activity of partisans opposed to the administration, the state of Nevada has had to endure an era of extravagance and utter recklessness which has seldom been paralleled in history. Funds are needed for state development and a fraction of the waste and squandering now prevalent would do a world of good if directed into proper channels.

Among the measures proposed by the republican party are an inheritance tax, a tax commission to equalize the burdens of taxation, good roads, publicity appropriations by counties and other measures which would give Nevada its proper place in the rank of progressive states.

The democratic idea of business is to take all you can for the good of the family. Nepotism runs riot in Carson City. The capitol is filled with wives, daughters, brothers-in-law, near cousins, uncles and aunts who flourish at the expense of taxpayers. This is a condition, not a theory. The only liberty taken with the statements is to affirm that the capitol is filled with relatives. This should be qualified to read the payrolls are padded with relatives. Wives who never venture within the portals of the building except when they draw their voucher on the first of the month are included in this list. There is no sense of shame or restraint. Everything goes. The number of papsuckers has not diminished through the election of democratic candidates who pledged themselves to sweeping reforms. Once in office they forgot all about these pledges. They simply sought loopholes for more pensioners and how well they succeeded is written in the records of the auditor's office.

When the first gripping need for economy was felt every republican official did his best to retrench and economize to the best of his ability. Employees were dismissed, notwithstanding the pressing demand for their services, and savings were effected in every possible direction. Democratic parasites, however, jostled each other in the lobbies on pay-day and business men have been bled to increase the army of taxeaters. If this is the sort of administration you want continued vote for partisans hide-bound with partisan greed and you will see Nevada fall back into ignominious oblivion.

Which ever way the cat jumps next Tuesday one thing is assured, the name of southern Nevada will stand in the lead over the abandoned headquarters of the three principal fighting forces. Tonopah and Goldfield furnished the brains and men to conduct the campaign and the rewards, where success is earned, will be divided accordingly. Robert G. Withers of Goldfield held down the headquarters of the Woodrow Wilson adherents as chief adviser and he would not be averse to wearing the ermine which graces the shoulders of Judge Farrington, providing that gentleman would be generous enough to retire from the office he has so ably honored. Or the district attorneyship is not a small plum as the fees of the office would palliate a compulsory residence in Carson City. Then there is Harry B. Lind, the pugnacious apostle of the bull moose. He is playing the game according to the ethics of his strenuous leader, but he is not disposed to bid for any prospective vacancy since he has an eye on Tonopah and will be satisfied with establishing business here after the smoke of the campaign clears away. But then it is an old adage that you must first catch your rabbit before plunging it in the mulligan.

Key Pittman, candidate for the United States senate, is following closely in the footsteps of Sir Francis Newlands of California, by grace of God and the influence of a well oiled political machine, senator from Nevada. The Tonopah candidate has already secured a home in Sausalito, Cal., where he proposes to establish his residence after playing his part in the political tragedy of 1912. He realizes the sting of defeat and has already found a quiet burg where he can hide his diminished head without hearing the snickering accompaniment of his fellow townsmen of Tonopah. Evidently he believes Nevada is good enough as a makeshift and a money maker—that's all.

Pat McCarran complimented the Bonanza last night on its fairness during the campaign and said he was thankful there was one paper in Nevada which gave a political opponent a square deal. The Bonanza stands for Bartlett and every reader of this paper who wishes to elevate the judiciary should vote to take the judiciary out of politics. A vote for Bartlett will never be regretted.

It is now safely predicted that Key Pittman will not carry a single precinct in Nye county. Rhyolite, Round Mountain and Manhattan have declared against him.

A vote for Sardine Summerfield is a vote for Key Pittman.

SAYS GOOD WORD FOR THE SENATOR FROM NEVADA

GOV. ODDIE WANTS HIS FRIENDS TO STAND BY HIS APPOINTMENT

Governor Tasker L. Oddie was one of the arrivals today and instantly got busy in the local field interviewing his friends and sizing up the local political situation. He is confident of the election of Senator Massey and is not loth to express himself on the merits of the candidate.

"I want my friends to help elect Massey," he said. "I appointed him to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Nixon and I think it is only right for the people of Nevada to give him a chance to fill out his term. He will show them what he can do. He has made a magnificent record during the few months he has been in the senate and is splendidly qualified to accomplish great things for the people of this state in the future. Of course under the law and by a technicality there is a necessity for re-election but I earnestly trust that the people of Nevada will take a broad view of this matter and give Senator Massey a chance to fill out his term.

"In the primaries two years ago he was my opponent and a most worthy one. He made a hard, clean fight against me but my host of friends at Nye county in particular won the fight for me. Now I ask those same friends most earnestly to rally to the support of this grand, good man whom I have appointed to the senate. It will be the greatest possible gratification to me to have him elected as it will vindicate my judgment in appointing him. The miners of this state have always been my friends and I know they have confidence in me. They have shown this in many ways and I can assure them that they will never find a man in public life who will be a more consistent friend to them than Senator Massey."

STEAMER BLOWN ASHORE AND SIXTEEN DROWNED

(By Associated Press) MONTREAL, Nov. 2.—During a storm last night the steamer Cecilia was hurled on the rocks and sank on Isle Perrot. At least 16 were drowned.

The real estate market will be "dull" most of the time if you try to sell property without the help of the Bonanza advertising.
